Sample output2: I want the above line(s) combined into one string, so the code should output this: .

A: Here's a solution: `#!/usr/bin/env python3 import re regexp = r"^(?English: is a small, run down piece of land that seemed to have been nothing but burnt fields in the past. The year is 2261 and as the opening subtitles tell us, "Global warming and widespread famine have virtually eliminated the human population in this area. Insects have taken over as the dominant species on the planet. In fact the title character has the distinction of being the first human being to set foot on the Moon. The Earth, is currently inhabited by a swarm of humanity-ravaging insects." Desmond becomes the unwilling pilot of a spaceship which is being secretly developed by the government as a weapon against the insect plague.The heroine is the 'attention-grabbing' insect-vivisector, Miss Kane. She is also the secret love object of Desmond. Also known as: Simians: The Story of the Lost World (The Works of JG Ballard), Title : Simians: The Story of the Lost World (The Works of JG Ballard) Language : English Format : DVD Subtitle : English, Chinese, Korean, French, Arabic, Indonesian, Portuguese Overall : Just enough action, splendor and violence to hold your interest. In most war films the good guys clean up the battlefield and the bad guys get their comeuppance. In the good guys' version of these war films, the good guys always win. In Simians, the good guys usually lose. Simians, written by (JG) Ballard in the late 1970`
